MA RESIDENTIAL ENERGY CODE - HVAC AND INDOOR AIR QUALITY

This training will focus on HVAC, indoor air quality, and the new energy code, including right sizing for mechanical systems. The content is grounded in the reality of what is being built in the Northeast and which current practices do not comply with the code.

We change the way people use energy.

At CLEARResult, we make energy efficiency smarter, faster and more accessible for everyone. We work with utilities, businesses and consumers to improve the energy experience on a local and global level — and we're just getting started.
