This month's presentation

Flood Maps and Building Code Construction Standards

Presented by: Eric Carlson – Environmental Engineer, DCR Flood Hazard Management Program

Please join the MetroWest Building Officials Association for this month's educational session, where we will discuss Flood Maps and Standards. Topics discussed will include:

- FEMA Mapping Updates
- Letters of Map Changes
- Flood-Resistant Construction Building Codes (IRC, IBC, and ASCE 24)
 - Residential
 - Non-residential

About our speaker:

Eric Carlson is an Environmental Engineer with DCR's Flood Hazard Management Program. He has worked in that capacity since 1990. He provides technical assistance and training on flood mapping issues, regulatory requirements, and floodplain management in general. He works closely with the BBRS on flood-related building code requirements and standards, as well as with other state and federal partners as part of the National Flood Insurance Program.

Audiences include community officials, consultants, design professionals, developers, builders, and the general public.
